2016 Show Theme

Maryland: Great People, Places, Things

What You Need to Know

- Maryland-related art only; Maritime-related are encouraged
- No entries from the 2015 joint AAA/Watercolor Show
- No identical entries from the last two years' Juried Shows
- All entries due at Annapolis Maritime Museum on Monday, May 2, from 9 to noon
- To avoid conflict with Mothers' Day, the opening Reception will be Sunday, May 15 from 3 to 5. It is free and open to the public
- Commissions: 75% artist, 25% museum
- Show formally opens on Thursday, May 5 and closes Sunday, June 5 when artworks can be picked up
- Unfortunately, no free standing items can be accepted; all items must hang on the museum's hanging system; please wire your artwork to facilitate hanging

What's Different from Previous Juried Shows

Open your portfolios and share new artwork we haven't seen, to include work that depicts the diversity and beauty of Maryland -- from its beaches on the Atlantic Ocean to the Chesapeake Bay out to the lakes and mountains of western Maryland. Maryland has great people - from watermen plying the Bay to hardworking men and women serving residents in its 25 counties. And don't ignore the marvelous recreational and historic sites that dot our cities and towns. We'll bet you have some unique Maryland art in your portfolios!

All judges this year are from the Annapolis arts community

We will have a People's Choice Award at our Reception

(Optional) We encourage you to bring a description of your artwork, i.e. a short description that will interest show attendees. You must bring that description with you on May 2. Based on available space, we will hang as many as we can.
